

MURDER DRONES YOUTUBE SERIES YESSSSS

created 3/8/24

THIS IS UNRELATED SO IF YOU DONT KNOW THE SHOW JUST SKIP IT YOU UNCULTURED SUBHUMAN. YEAHHH THIS SHOW IS AWESOME. better than TADC make no mistake about that. The fandoms are weird for sure, but I don't think people define the show. I mean, I'm just throwing this out there, but an NSDAP could like this show and it doesn't change this show. It's a good indie animation series and I don't think anyone can change that. Its plot is awesome, and the uniqueness and talent that went into this, is epic. Unfortunately, the brain rot show of "TADC" has taken this series over by, as of now: 302 MILLION VIEWS!!!! HOW? well actually, TikTok turning the show into an overnight sensation was how, but I've watched Glitch since forever virtually, and SMG4 before that, Murder Drones needs all the true love. Go check the series out: GLITCH - YouTube they also have other cool series on the media. today I went kayaking on a river in Madison, I stared at the clouds, reminded me of the elephant end credits with the clouds going by.

Im not sure if I should add dates in the future, but maybe I will, because I don't think my edit history is visible, OBVIOUSLY this website was, and is, being written over months, and weeks, I didn't put this together in a day.

^ yeah hahaha it's a cool image shut the flip up you flippin hecker.

Maybe I wouldn't like fake robot girls if some girl at the school would DATE ME. But it's fine, I have obviously solved that matter.

Also, I went to the dentist today and got a McGriddle. Always a nice day when you get to skip the heck of school every day.

In my opinion, school is just this, you wake up to go to hell every day. (remember this is a family friendly site-rant so no swaring) Creating a website is honestly really fun.

It's just a show at the end of the day, it doesn't influence people in any way, I just like it.

I see you; I need you, more than you ever knew.

Add my Roblox account at: @JaDasIsGutJa. I play Office, GUN TEST PVP, And Realistic Hood Test. FPS games. Those are ultimately my favorites. Calculator will make the same mistake, yeah, I see in its face.

HOLDONTIGHTTOTHISTIMEANDPLACECUZEVERYTHINGYOUKNOWWILLBEERASED,
you were born inside your head and that is where you'll be when You. Are. Dead

MATPAT IS RETIRING TOMMOROW NOOOOO!!!! I guess everything's temporary, but it bothers me when we have this shite coming down. At least I still have flamingo. But frick this guy was a big part of my childhood and FNAF phase, so it's sad to see him go, I guess he has kids now, and this sentence really reminds me "You'll never realize someone until you steal their skin and walk around in it." So, I understand his retirement, at least he'll feature in some GTLives. There's nothing we can do. Mat Pat I doubt for any reason...well...no I doubt for any reason you'll be on this website, but if you are, I'll have you know you're one of those famed sources of my own happiness. One of my favorite videos is your grocery store survival guide, and the Kane pixels walkthrough, I always stayed tuned for that, I can't forget the millions of FNAF series of course. Damnit, I missed his goodbye stream, whatever, I guess I wasn't cut out to claim that sample of history.

Also, I have this one account I interact with on TikTok, Sieiq, number one v defender. I'm sure they'd want a shoutout, they made threats to Glitch, but I don't mind since I like their content. But that person is such a fucko, I don't even know why, sometimes I just hate the MD community, even though we're all similar, they're so edgy like I've said that before, but I can't NOT mention it.

I really have some special places for some famous people I like, Micheal Kovach, Albert, Jaiden Animations, but none of them influence me for all the right reasons. They wouldn't understand me it seems; I don't really know what to say, honestly this page has been stale recently so, but I'll be coming back for you, I'll know that it's the time when I get an idea of what to put on this page. Adios.

Also flip you if you unironically like Tessa from MD, you monsters have a FETISH for liking background characters, and she acts too edgy anyways so shut the heck up. I'm glad the creator LV likes unhappy endings, a change from what many call "Hollywoodism."

Also, dang I need to make my own theories on this show since Mat Pat is gone, not too hard I guess, plus his channel isn't completely abandoned.

early theories, Mar 19.

Obvious theory: N killed Uzi's mom.

Lesser important theories: Episode 7 and 8 will be called, in order, Divided destruction, and Null. Eh idk, looks like the story is going in one direction, Uzi will have to be killed, or N will be dumb and destroy everything to save Uzi, and V probably died, I'm still confused on why the fandom is so sure, like it's just one scene, again, LV doesn't like happy endings. Doll isn't bad, for a Russian character she isn't edgy.

Other than Murder Drones on my spare time I like interesting myself in Guns, my family is inherently Liberal and anti-gun, but the internet is my resort.

The M38 Mauser is a Swede variant, I've always had a thing for Bolt Actions due to their simplicity in design, and satisfying functions, I know they're obsolete in our modern world, but they're beautiful.

Now these two pistols, The L-35 Lahti, and the Mark 4, Hunter variant, interest me. In my opinion aesthetics are really what interests me. The Lahti is obviously more powerful than the competitor, but I always love the look. The Mark 4 could be better if the barrel wasn't edged, like the smoother target variant, but it's still beautiful. .22 is an awesome round, often showcased in homemade guns. Growing up, it would be awesome to own guns eventually, I'm not Conservative, I don't align with the America-Destroying parties, nor do I pretend to be a little saint centrist. Liberal however do not understand guns a lot as it seems, but luckily some do, like the Liberal Gun Owners community. If I had a partner, I'd hope she'd be interested in guns, but then the rest of her behavior would likely follow suit, you can't have cake, and eat it, too.

Honorable mentions which are basically guns I was too lazy to cover: Suomi KP-31, Konepistole, AR556, Sako 85 Bavarian, Finnish M39 Mosin Nagant, Luger pistol, P38, and the Ruger Mini-14.

(below) The .22 LR JR-15 is unironically awesome, the small, compact nature of it is beautiful. I saw one smart individual on Reddit claim that this would be dangerous since it's easier to conceal. BROTHER IT'S .22 YOU BOZO. I rest my case. but screw politics.

Now this gun is just beautiful, I used to care an ounce of salt for AR styled rifles, but this one is just beautiful, entry level as they say, but I'd definitely buy this when I turn 18. Cooking with the Fuhrer! \(youtube.com\) This video in particular was one of the first videos on YouTube I ever watched, man these parodies were THE STUFF. Seriously I couldn't be bored watching this, they're entertaining and funny. LONG LIVE THE UNTERGANGERS

E&Ds knowledge, I think overall they were just edgy kids, had they been normal people I guess their journals would make more deepness and mental sense, but I think they were just edgy, they were "the first" I guess, I've always had a "being in first place" complex, but I guess I was born at the wrong place at the wrong time.

Just imagine the KNOWLEDGE you could have if you could just go back to 2000, EVEN 2010 WOULD BE ASTRONOMICAL, but then again, YouTube would be my gateway, telling anyone about 9/11, or any attacks, or even Covid, wouldn't work, people wouldn't take your word for it.

pretty scene girl \(youtube.com\) this is one of my favorite songs, Lucky Star is kind of cool to, never cared much for anime though, I can't deny the art style is always good.

DoTa, by Bass hunter, has a LOT of versions, I have 3 in my YouTube playlist, ultimately, I love every version, DoTa has been the oldest one for me though obviously.

I often think of how cool architects are, leaving a building that people will see for possibly 100s of years, awesome, designing schools would be cool.

Not edgy, but seriously I love the look of Columbine, the windows outside are so beautiful, I'd love for this design to be reused, it's awesome. My local school isn't too bad in design, the library is curved, weird how school libraries often have curved walls, but I like the architecture.

i DONT KNOW MAN. I think V is probably the most attractive out of the Murder Drones.

Doll Is nice, the Russian-ness is kind of hot in my opinion, they'd both be...moderately sweet as GFs.

Uzi is fine I guess, she could be more of a friend though, an Eric to my Dylan, I think Uzi would be the kind of person to be interested in Columbine, if Uzi was a shooter, she'd be Alec McKinney. Seriously, Uzi would be great at shooting, like if there was an MD episode where Uzi gets her classmates, man that would be awesome, especially for Braidon/Braiden idk.

You know all this talk about robots from an animated show is making me think. Sometimes I don't think love is worth it, I don't know if I could hold a relationship to be honest, I still don't get why no one has given me a chance but, I guess I pre-humans deserve it. I think sexual activity, and love as a whole are just so pre-set, nothing in this world is new to me anymore, love and sex just aren't interesting. Like sure I'll bust to a r34 art piece, but honestly that in real life just sounds...I don't know, maybe I just haven't experienced it, I just don't think I care about anything anymore, I don't know if I can have a successful life with my mental state. HEADS UP: I will not be doing website dates anymore, circa of today, 3/14/24 TODAY THAT MR CRABS FRIES. Jokes aside, I don't see a point in putting dates in. If you want to be a detective go ahead and match up the topic of what I'm talking about to what I wrote here, but I will not give context of the date further.

Uzi seems like the type of person to be compatible with me I guess, she is kind of shipped with N, who is similar to me, always trying to be useful and such.

I like talking about indie stuff, indie VAs, Indie shows, even small YouTubers, they deserve the fame, they're awesome, and my opinion is just an opinion, I DO NOT represent the shows.

FINAL DESTINATION \(youtube.com\) LETS GO, as of writing this, EPISODE 7 IS COMING. I can't wait for this episode to be released, coming March 29th, I'll write a review on this site. We see that this will take place in some building again, with lockers, idk.

Today on March 16th, I visited the Weston High School, I might post the video, but basically, it's the largest High School attack in Wisconsin, it's a super small school but when I went there the energy was powerful, I went outside and touched the walls of the school, but I didn't want to get arrested or something, crazy a person died, or at least got shot, in that school. Theories: based on the fear shocked faces in the trailer I assume something tragic occurs, like a malformed V (maybe later she is fixed) or Uzi getting injured, possibly at the end as a cliffhanger. The fandom has been weird lately, not shutting up about bOozY uZI, like please die you punk ass frick. I am losing interest in the show I must admit, with how my life has been going, I'm just ready for EP 7 and then, I might, unfortunately not be able to watch it, but whatever, someone is always missing out.

I often hang around this construction pile in my town, not far from my house. Maybe if you're interested you can check it out. It's FULL of cool stuff, I've made a lot of the rock forts standing there. I might leave some notes there to find, like geocache but for poor people, I guess geocaching is free but, IDK. The hill might get destroyed soon when they advance the construction lot, so explore it fast, I'll drop the coordinates, but it's awesome, the side facing the Qwik Trip is pretty cool, there's a forest, and some weird trenches, man made, but way to natural at the same time. The side facing the road is the highlands, tons of rocks, and a big hill that's cool to climb, then there's the central flat land, just a rocky desert, then the side facing Sjoelinds is just the bunkerjagerfeld, as I call it, I made a bunker there with some rocks and a flag holder. I think I'm going to start a subpage for cool places in my town.

My other articles on this webpage are mostly just my mental rants, I love them, but if you're looking for my humor legacy, this page is the best for that.

Ok look at this image: idk, its awesome, gives me motivational thoughts.

<https://twitter.com/i/status/1765108889014395080> I LOVE THIS. Italia.

I sent this columbine edit to Glitch on Twitter, I had it on my old youtube channel, Eperogilimousine. BUT friggin youtube and the idiots that allow a million porn bots deleted it. So stupid. Youtube, don't censor people, it ends badly.

MURDER DRONES EPISODE 7!!! DID NOT EXPECT TO BE WATCHING IT IN A CAR RIDE. Might not see th4 last epi, anyways its March 29th, I have of course, watched the livestream, I left some livestream comments, I was one of the first, leaked my name lol. The episode was cool. WAY TOO MANY PREDICTABLE, CLICHE, last minute saves in my opinio, seriously there were like 7 in the fight scene, honestly the whole show is a battle show now at this point. GREAT nonetheless, I donated a dollar on my alt to the Glitch livestream. And I also purchased Merch to help out. Not much but helps indie studios. All of the3 theories were kind of true, the N and Uzi battle, the Nori return. THAD HAS RETURNED. Seriously I haven't seen that fella since Episode 4, that's 1 and a half years.... that's basically a lifetime for fricks sake? (I believe since #4), at least this wasn't the one year wait between Episode 1-2 which I've mentioned again. I'll be honest I didn't pay attention to the show much until recently. Maybe something in my brain clicked. Now it's an awesome show. GOOD EPISODE, I hope the show gets way more popular, I think, maybe the media around the USA will bring this show to attention somehow...maybe from the pure talent, or maybe something..malevolent, nah, it can't be tainted. It's too good.

I mean I gotta be honest to God here, Murder drones to me is EGS to Randy S, but I don't..think I'm going to turn into a cartoon girl, I wonder if that fucko actually thought that, or just wanted to piss people off.

My pre-material changes N plushie, only one I have. I might sell it, well, post-mortality. But it might be worth something IDK. Dude, I hate uploading photos from my iPad with the stupid website freezing my device.

Me and Adam Lanza both share a love for Anime-techno-Japanese beats, so that's one thing. I like his style. Kind of weird motive though.

I also played the Class of 09' game, it was virtually simultaneously released with MD, WORDS CANNOT DESCRIBE HOW MUCH I LOVED THAT GAME< I think it's no surprise which ending was my favorite...

I hated the characters though, even Jeffery being my favorite sucked, but his actions on the school ending...upmost respect.

Unfortunately, I might not be able to see the new game getting revamped...damn. Game was kind of short too, easy playthrough. It reminded me of those old story games about like love or whatever. I played it on laptop, same as Doki Doki. But now I of course have a PC.

I don't know why, I just can't get over the amount of columbine references in CO09, like it's so ironic and I loved that game ever since I first played. I think another one is coming out idk, I just think the game is so much like DDLC, and I guess it all started from that.

I kind of need a discord kitten, unironically, you probably think I'm trying to be funny but seriously, I need someone that would be on my level of..adventure.

Lizzy=favorite MD character. Gotta be honest.

Para Light WorX - YouTube As a kid I would watch these short films for HOURS, I was always waiting for a new episode of "dusty faces" to come out. I think these films are basically just Nazi apologia, but I loved them and always will.

I often pose to songs and pretend I'm in an edit, I'm super cringe I'll be honest, it's better to greenlight yourself than have people judge all your crap.

'Duck! The Carbine High Massacre \(youtube.com\) I just cannot talk down to this movie, first watched in 2020. It's so real and good, I recommend it, but, if you're one of those LGTV Liberals you might not like it. It's seriously just so true to the representations of people like this in the media. The movie is super liminal to, the music used is surreal too. Everything this film hints out is correct, people forgetting tragedies, idolizing murderers, bullying, and even society as a whole. All cliché but, the movie really speaks out to me. Acting Sucks.

I really like Aho Girl

YES I LIKE VIOLENCE ON THE WOMAN.
